

Elvin Flythe

October 25, 1954 - September 3, 2015

Elvin Flythe was called home on September 3, 2015 after a lengthy illness. He was born to the late Ethel Mae Flythe and James Lee Flythe in Portsmouth, Virginia. Elvin was affectionately known as Red Baby, Pops and Flythe. He was educated in Portsmouth Public Schools. He was formerly employed with MHI for 12 years. He was a caring and loving man always trying to help others. He was a Dallas Cowboy fan to the end and was known to be very flashy with great style. Elvin always thought he was younger than what he was. He fought a good fight to the end, never complaining about being in pain even though we knew he was. He is predeceased by his brothers Ulysses Flythe and Terry Lee Flythe.

Elvin is survived by a wife Carolyn Flythe, two daughters Shelika Whitfield (Michael) Tamara Williams (Walson III), one sister Dianna Robertson (Zonte) and one brother James M. Flythe (Carshnda), eight grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.
