

Enoch Carrington

September 5, 1917 - November 18, 2012

On November 18, 2012, the arms of God opened up and received Enoch Carrington, 95, from his life on earth. He was the only son of the late Simeon Carrington and Cora Cassalee Carter Carrington. He was born on September 5, 1917, and reared in Portsmouth, Virginia. He received his education in the Portsmouth Public School System. Enoch was a chipper at the Norfolk Navy Shipyard and served in the military during World War II. He had a passion for travel, fishing and building. He built numerous houses including a family vacation home on the Chesapeake Bay. He also built a boat in his back yard which he captained offering fishing charter trips to relatives and friends. Enoch had a love of family, friends and a compassion for others less fortunate than himself. He was a mentor to struggling young men in the Truxton area of Portsmouth where he lived most of his life.

He leaves to mourn six children Vernon Carrington (Jean) of Oxen Hill, MD, Denise Falls (Anthony) of Springfield, Dolores Carrington-Hill (Jerry) of Richmond, Ronald Carrington (De) of Manassas, Linda Carrington and Norma Carrington of Chesapeake along with; seven grandchildren Debra Carrington, Wanda Sue Carrington, Anthony Falls, Tonisha Falls, Raven Carrington, Desiree Carrington and Imani Hill; two nieces Helen Harris and Mary Lee Holley; two nephews Reggie Allen and George Allen; close family friends Leonard and Susie Keele; longtime nurse Willie Austin and a host of relatives and friends.

He is predeceased by his wife, Marie Barnes Carrington, three sisters Marion

Allen, Fannie Lassiter and Evelyn Anderson all of Portsmouth. Enoch will be greatly missed.
