“ Eric,

You will truly be missed by myself and the Vaughan family, One of my dad's closest friends. I can still see you coming over to the house to see us and how weak you use to be laughing. I thank you for being one of my dad's pallbearers and never thought you'd be gone just 4 month after him. You now have a resting place that no one can ever take away from you.

*Sleep in Peace Eric!

“ To my Lil Big Brother,

You will always be near and dear to my heart. My heart is aching and my eyes are filled with tears. I will forever hear you calling me "Smoke". Eric, I love you forevermore. As I sit here after midnight shattered and dazed, I keep reminding myself to close my eyes and vision you doing your crazy dance, laughing hard and just being the life of the party. I can only say that I love and miss you and that I'm forever grateful that God blessed me with a wonderful Brother.

We were unofficial twins, we talked/texted weekly. We could talk to one another about any and everything and never passed judgment.

I will miss you calling me on the phone saying, "Smoke, let me hold $20. Girl, you know I'll pay it back next week."

It never mattered that you never payed any of the $20's back because our love for one another was far greater than any amount of money.

After each conversation you would always tell me, "Baby Girl, keep your head up, I'm proud of you for being a good mother to your children and a great sister. Love you Smoke."

Eric Yarnell Whitney, I love you for LIFE! Rest Easy Baby!!!

Your Big Lil Sis, Gwenette aka Smoke!!!
