

Erma Vivian Askew

July 17, 1921 - December 29, 2013

Erma V. Askew went to be with the Lord on December 29, 2013. She was born on July 17, 1921 to the late, Arthur and Minnie Cox in Portsmouth, Virginia and educated in the Portsmouth Public School System.

Mrs. Askew was a strong woman of God who fought a good fight and expressed love for her family and to those around her. Sister Askew was a member of Saint Mark Missionary Baptist Church since 1977 and a member of the Tribe of Levi. She was also a retired food service worker with the Chesapeake Public School System.

Mrs. Askew was predeceased by her husband, William Askew, Sr., six siblings and her sons Alphonso and Dwight Askew.

Those left to cherish her loving memory are: three daughters, E. Dianne Snipe of Lilburn, Georgia, Patricia A. Hinkson (Tony) of Indian Head, Maryland and Catherine Y. Askew of Portsmouth, Virginia; two sons, William M Askew (Alfreda) of Suffolk, Virginia; 13 grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She also leaves two siblings, Alma Crawford of Seattle, Washington and Charles Cox of Hampton, Virginia. Sister Askew will be truly missed but never forgotten.
