“BROTHER” you had the perfect nickname. You was just that a brother to everyone, you always knew how to make us laugh, always thinking of others. One of those phrases that always make me laugh when I think of you is “ What I care about It a Ant can Pull it” 😊. We love you, but God loves You more, RIP my BROTHER ❤️ ❤️ ❤️.

Aunt Fannie, Lavern, and family I'm wishing for you much Love, and Strength today, let us all hold on to our beautiful memories that's in our hearts forever.

Thank You, Thank You for allowing for us to be here with you'll virtually. Much ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

“ It has been many years since I've seen Ernest, his Sister and Mother. I have beautiful memories of them all when I was growing up in Corapeake. My father was the late James "Nackie" Parker and my mother is Jessie Blanchard Parker. Ernest and his family were always dressed to the max. The family would attend St. Paul MBC in Sunbury, NC on a regular basis. To his Sister Laverne, I can relate to the loss of an only brother, as that my Brother James Alvin went home to be the Lord on September 23, 2020.

Please know that thoughts and prayers are with you all from Gates County and Chowan County.

“ Well Brother looking at this picture wondering how time flies and how short life is, I wanna thank you for all that you have given and done for me in my life. Wish you were still here, but we love you, but God our father loves you more. I wii always cherish all the memories, especially the ones you taught me to make my own clothes. I wanna thank you. Thank you for my beautiful prom gown. You made me feel like the most beautiful girl in the world. I'm going to miss you. Thanks for all the good times, especially the laughter. I can here you now. RIP LOVE YOU.

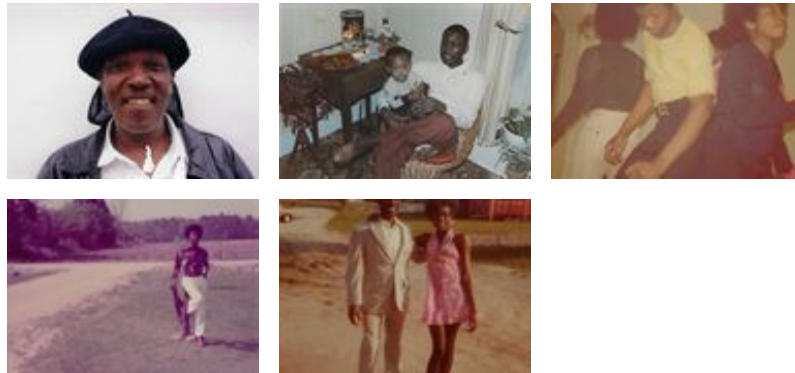

Aunt Fanny and Lavern I hope this helps lighten the burden and lift you guys up. Sorry I couldn't be there, but my heart and prayers goes out to you all. LOVE YOU.

“Brother” you were a smart, funny and courageous cousin. We will miss hearing your voice. (Especially talking your junk) You made us laugh and also gave good advice! With the way you dressed and the clothes you made, you were definitely a GQ Man!! May you rest in peace. We love you!❤️
