“ My favorite memory of my grandmother was from about 15 years ago. I decided to call her out of the blue, after not seeing her for several years. I wanted to update her on my young family and all the things going on in my life.....but she already knew. She had been keeping up with me all along. I thought the miles that separated us and the years we had been out of contact meant she didn't think about me.....but she knew. Godspeed Grandma. I love you.
