What a life. What a legacy. You were my first usher teacher at 12 years old at the old Camelot church in the shopping center.. This past year as I ushered and looked over to see you worship at Birthing Place. I was reminded that your legacy still lives on. Well done good and faithful Servant, Mother Griffin, Rest in His glory. Forever grateful Love you. Vanessa

Ethel was my friend for over 30 years. We kept in touch during the tough times and the good rimes. I believe that how much love is inside a a friendship depends on how much love you put into it. I will miss the phone calls to check on me as well as the ones to help solve problems as they pass thru our lives

I try to be a Rainbow in someone's life and she was my Rainbow also. We shared a lot of good times.

Jesus came and took Ethel by the hand and led led her to her home in Heaven and "Boo" was their to greet her. Ethel will always bring back special memories to me.
