“ Grandma Eva how every thought of you makes me smile. I'm going to miss you dearly. I wish that I had so much more time with you, even though you talked about my dress and told me never to wear it again. You told me some Portsmouth stories that had me weak in laughter. I love you and don't worry I will take very good care of your Kunte.

“ *Gma Eva, nothing can prepare me for this day. Missing you dearly.
Still eating all the candy and cookies. Never will forget all the good times we've shared. I remember the last time you stayed at our house your baby made u a nice big ol breakfast. No more pain and suffering. You home now. Loving and missing you. Your Maria and Marcus*

“ *The Lord called home another one of his angles. Her name was Eva Mae Charlton my Grand Auntie. I love and will miss you dearly.
Every time I saw your face, it was like looking at my grandmother. You can now sing and rejoice with your sisters Esther and Catherine in Heaven. R.I.P Auntie Gone But You Will Never Be Forgotten.*

Ron and Sabrina Rose - August 12, 2014 at 03:56 PM

“ Greatest and gifted of all, God's child was summoned by love to surrender her torch of victory from suffering and sacrifice. Mother, you've won the race, satisfied a debt, and gained the crown to be honored and worn proudly as you walk around heaven all day, you are missed, and loved by your family. Rest on momma and know your legacy lives on.....Amen!
