

Evangelist Marcia Cordelia Brown

August 12, 1941 - August 31, 2024

Marcia Cordelia Smith Brown, age 83, entered her heavenly home on August 31, 2024 at her residence and in the loving care of her family. She was born on August 12, 1941, the fifth of nine children, to James T. Smith, Sr. and Pearl B. Crump Smith of Portsmouth, VA.

She graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in 1960 and attended Norfolk State University. Aspiring to be a nurse, she worked as a nurses aide at St. Barnabas Hospital (Bronx, NY) which was an experience that led to a lifetime of compassionate care for others. She also enjoyed sewing, crocheting, writing poetry and songs, drawing, crafting, and was an excellent cook.

At age 17, she gave her trial sermon under Pastor Ruth Brown of Holy Light Church of Deliverance (Portsmouth, VA). She continued the call to ministry serving under Pastor Mattie Chase of Evangelical Church of God in Christ (Philadelphia, PA) and later as a member of the presbytery at Faith Deliverance Christian Center (Norfolk, VA) where she was an evangelist, and for a time, a member of the Pastor's Aide Ministry.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brother James T. Smith, Jr., and sisters Lillian Smith, Vandelyn Smith, and Janice Smith.

She is survived by her devoted husband of 59 years, Maxell Brown, Sr.;

children Marcia Mitchell (Jimmy), Maxell Brown, Jr., and Melba Smith; grandchildren Joy Elmore (Marcus), Jasmine Cole (Jordan), James Mitchell, Kellen Ballance, and Braylen Ballance; and great-grandsons Noah Elmore and Jordan “Drake” Cole, Jr. (on the way). She leaves to mourn her sisters Emma Trotman, Iris Creekmur, Melba Carlin (Patrick), one brother Keevin Smith, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

“ Evangelist Marcia Brown was a very unique woman of God. She was a giant in the Kingdom; her dedication to God and his calling never ceased. Even on her bed of affliction, her desire was to do her part. She was my friend and sister in Christ. Her sincere love of the body of Christ and her example of service and commitment will be treasured always. My sincere condolences and love to her family and friends. We'll done, Marcia. Welcome into the eternal joy of the Lord! Evangelist Donna Wood ❤️❤️❤️
