“ It is going to be difficult to not hear LaVerne's voice. It was so special as she would sing your name. She and Zack were and will always be the best couple. We had some GREAT times at the CIAA. Everyone will miss Verne, but THANKS for all the memories. The Grants (Tim, Vicki, Aja & Niya)

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Faye LaVerne Rogers. My sincere and utmost sympathy goes out to the entire family.

I met LaVerne, as she is affectionately referred to, over 20 years ago when Zak introduced her to me. She was so kind, considerate, joyful and had a "gleaming" personality. We "clicked" just like that. And on the years that followed, she would greet me and start talking like we hadn't "missed a beat" in the time in between. Her personality "exhumed" all who knew her and she made you feel so comfortable each and every time you saw her. LaVerne had a smile that could light up a room and her eyes sparkled like little stars that would draw you to her.

We will miss her dearly, but God had another plan for her. Rest in peace my fine, elegant lady.

“ I only have known LaVerne for the past 31 years. She has always been a person who was real. What you saw was who she was. She was beautiful in her spirit and her actions. I am thankful that I met her and Zack thru my sister in law. God only puts a few angels on earth and she was certainly one of the angels. I will miss her but I am thankful for her friendship and love. I pray that God will keep the family in his love and peace.

“ With love and and continuing admiration for my classmate, friend and exceptionally beautiful 'homegirl'. I will always remember the quick and infectious smile and laugh she always had for friends, and the elegance she brought o any event or gathering. She was a constant -- from jr. high, through college and after during her marriage to my brother Zack. She blessed him with 48 years of devoted partnership, and a beautiful daughter and I offer my condolences to both of them for the loss of a genuine and gifted wife and mother. I hope her family will find peace --- and in that peace recognize and remember that she was a bright and shining jewel who touched many with her smile, her generosity, her special personality, and her unmatched grace. Love you Faye Laverne Will miss you From your friend and brother Joseph F. Jordan
