

Frances Dotson

September 14, 1928 - May 4, 2015

Frances "Dolly" Jenkins Dotson was called home to be with the Lord on May 4, 2015 at her home. She was born on September 14, 1928 in Atlantic City, New Jersey but was raised in Newport News, Virginia. Later in life, Frances married Aaron Dotson in 1974 in Fort Knox, Kentucky. She worked for the Native American Indians and socially disadvantaged citizens to improve their lifestyles. She later earned her certificate in Geriatric Management at the Fayetteville Technical Institute. Dolly, as her husband called her, enjoyed reading, being a housewife, and her heart was her grandchildren. She also enjoyed telling her husband what to do and provided him with plenty to do with her honey do list. Frances and her husband became members of the New Hope Baptist Church around 1978. As a member of the Deaconess Ministry, she was a living example for the teachings of the older women and the younger women in the church. As a mother, she nurtured her children as well as Aarons. She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband of 43 years, Aaron Dotson, the children she nurtured Robert Jenkins (Carolyn), Larry Jenkins, Antonio Jenkins (Amanda), Pamela Blanco (Larry), Adrian Dotson (Michelle), David Dotson (Sabrina), and Larry Dotson, a brother Sandy Glover ; her grandchildren, great grandchildren relatives and friends.

“ My sincere sympathy to the family the the deceased, Ms Dotson. Your online family program used all the resources of JT Fisher Funeral Home to their best advantage. My complements to the family member who coordinated this moving tribute. You conveyed a loving story that I was moved to see. Fisher could do a better job by hiring a full time ad visor to maintain the dignity of the family and the dead who pass through their funeral home.
