

Freddie Haywood

May 6, 1942 - May 24, 2020

On May 6, 1942, Freddie Haywood was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Boyne and Ethel Armour Haywood, Sr. On Sunday, May 24, 2020, he entered into eternal rest. The family unit was inclusive of two sisters and five brothers. His sisters Dorothy Stanford, Betty Jean Carr, and brothers Bobby Haywood and Boyne Haywood, Jr all preceded him in death. During his career he traveled to many ports. While stationed in Norfolk, VA in 1977, he met Mae Breckenridge. They were united in holy matrimony on September 1, 1990. Together they reared two children, Leonard and Lolita. The family enjoyed road trips, vacations and camping. Upon his retirement from the United States Navy in 1990, he joined the Norfolk State University Family, where he worked in the Facilities Management Department, as a welder and plumber for twenty years. He was a loving, caring and devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend. He was a gun, car and RV Motor Home enthusiast and became a member of the Virginia Camping Cardinals. He was loved and respected by family and friends. He was affectionately known as the "toolman" who could fix nearly anything. As a memorial of his earthly existence, he leaves to mourn his passing, but cherish his memory, a devoted wife of 29 years, Mae Breckenridge-Haywood, several children, Leonard E. Breckenridge, III (Danielle) of Richmond, VA, Lolita Breckenridge (Delvin Menchion) of Alexandria, VA as well as three daughters and one son; two grand daughters, Lailah Eden and Leah Eve; two brothers, Edward (Hattie Marie)

“ I'm so saddened to learn of Freddie's passing. It took me back to meeting Freddie and Mae at a VCC campout. Freddie had been bravely fighting his health battle, but did not let that hinder him. We held many good conversations and I gained insight on living life irregardless of the trials. Mae and family, you have my heartfelt condolences at this distressful time. I pray for your comfort. May the many fond and sweet memories you made with Freddie bring you solace. Be blessed and encouraged.
