My father, Hyland, always talked and visited his family in Virginia. He held his Uncle Buster and Aunt Bea in high regard, as well as his many cousins that he watched grow up and become good family.

“Weekends at Uncle Freddy’s and Aunt Margaret’s were always a good time. Playing Bones, learning life lessons and just shooting the s, as Uncle Freddy would say. You will truly be missed. Always in our hearts.

“Late nights at Uncle Freddy’s and Aunt Margaret’s were always a good time. Playing bones, talking about life and laughing were some of the fondest memories that we will always cherish with “Fast.” He and Aunt Margaret even taught us how to fish. I remember when we stayed out fishing til 3 in the morning. James and I will always remember all of the encouragement, support and advice that he would give us. He will truly be missed.

“Margaret, Sabrina, Ricky, and the Sample Family, Harroll, and I were saddened to hear of Fred’s passing. He was a great guy, and we will always remember the many times when we were in his presence and how he made us all laugh. It was never a dull moment when Fred was around. Know that God makes no mistakes and that He only takes the best.
