“ So sorry for your loss! I know there will be a big space left that Georgie filled in many people's lives. She had such a good heart! She loved to cook and boy was she good at it. She was our neighbor for a while and I used to love when she would bring me some of her good down home cooking. She also had a knack for making the best out of what she had. She gave it her ALL.I know she will be missed. Please know the family is in our prayers!###imported-begin###Walter & Cindy Thomas###imported-end##

“ I was a young girl last time I saw Georgie. I remember her as my mom Candy's, best friend. From my mom I heard so many stories about them both. I do recall when Georgie came to my Grandparents house and fixed my hair for my moms wedding, still have pictures of that day. Although they had not seen eachother in years I know they remained in eachothers hearts. Now that they have both past away I know that they are both now reunited with eachother, where they are now taking about all the fun times they had together and talking about all the fun times the had when they were apart. Pretty sure that their Grandbabies are a hugh topic for them. Although Georgie and my mom are Angels now looking over us, we all should feel better knowing that they are in a much better place and they are as healthy as ever.

I wish I could there with everyone on this day. Just know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. I love you!! --Melissa###imported-begin###Melissa Taylor###imported-end##

“ We need to be thankful for difficult situations because they bring us closer to God. Christianity is not for sissys. Georgie prayed and cried and cooked and did everything more than most women. We must each fight our own battles. She did the best with what she was given. I have had some of the wind knocked out of me, but by God's Grace I will be a better Christian for having known Georganna.##imported-begin##Gail Alderman Nimitz##imported-end##

“ Although it's been some time since we saw you, we always kept you in our hearts and in our prayers. We'll never forget the way you walked in when others walked out. You embraced the Russell boys (and grandbabies) as your own and for that we will always love you. Rest in peace Gramma Georgie.##imported-begin##Rickey & Sheena Russell##imported-end##

“ I'll always remember you as a happy person. You was a close friend of my mother. When I was born, you was eager to hold me. Now every time, you see me and you always say I get handsomer the every time. I'll remember that. Hope you are doing well up there with God.##imported-begin##William Nimitz##imported-end##

“ Georganna the newspaper had a pink section today. On the computer was a girl born deaf who cried when she heard her voice for the first time. She said as you did "God is Good." You also said THANK YOU often. I miss you but hold you dear in my heart. love, Gail##imported-begin##Gail Alderman Nimitz##imported-end##
