“ I will never forget the day when I boarded a bus in Ports., Va and a loud scream was heard. Someone began crying, the bus driver pulled to the side to find out what had happened. Eventually the we are learned that one of his regular passenger had just seen the daughter of her best childhood friend. I was that child. I later learned that Miss Georgetta had been asking God to help her find me for 14 years. I learned so much from her about my mother. Miss Georgetta became the missing link I so badly needed . Over the years she and I, my children and Ethel Parker shared so many meomries. Miss Georgetta always brought rays of sunshine to me even in the nursing home by way of telephone. Her spirit of love, joy and contentment will always be a living testimony of an example of how God wants us to live.

Family please be encouraged that God is well pleased with your service to your mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, sister, cousin and friend.

I am sorry I can be with you in body today, but truly my spirit is with you and I am available if needed.

Blessings and Love,

The Daughter of the Late Blanche and Frank Norfleet (Minister Joyce A. Foster)##imported-begin##Minister Joyce A. Foster##imported-end##
