“ Gloria was always one to make you laugh. She was in happy land all the time not too many times was she sad. I will miss her spontaneous visit and the joy she brought when she would come.

“ I hadn't seen Gloria since I left Portsmouth in 1986. I was so happy to have Mini-Reunion with Gloria thru Facebook. She was still the approachable, sweet and kind hearted person I remember when she lived on Wool Ave and me on Belle St. We would chat and share thoughts of us growing up there in Mt. Hermon. Gloria and her Grandmother Mrs. Swinton was one of many women I admired and respected as a young girl after the loss of my own mother. Always greeting people with her smile and well wishes! All my Love, Prayers, Empathy and Sympathy to the Wilson, Myrick and Swinton Family! 🙏🌹🙏
