

Gracie E. Williams

June 11, 1944 - June 27, 2018

On Wednesday, June 27, 2018 our Sovereign God, called our precious, mother, sister, grandmother, auntie and friend, Gracie Elois Williams home to her eternal rest. She was affectionately known as “Boo-Boo” to friends and loved ones. Gracie was born on June 11, 1944 to the late Grace Williams and the late Howard Williams, Sr. of Portsmouth, VA.

Gracie was educated in the Portsmouth Public School System where she developed the knack for sewing. Gracie was well known for her spunky personality, making different designs and putting her unique spin on anything with her sewing adventures. She worked for many years with the City of Portsmouth, where she continued her fashion trend while working. She also had other hobbies like puzzles, talking on the phone (she loved to talk!) and reading all kinds of books but the most important one was her “BIBLE”!

She was preceded in death by her sister, Lovenia “Candy” Williams and brother, Herman “Jeepbo” Williams, Sr.

Gracie is survived by her only daughter, Lisa Elois Williams; two brothers, Howard “H.H.” Williams, III and Danny “Danny-boy” Williams; two granddaughters, Monique Williams and Brittany Wilson; one great-grandson, Lajwane T. Henderson, Jr.; two close friends, Jennie Wilson, Alma Lawrence, and a host of loving nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
