

Gwendolyn Louise Nolen

February 12, 1968 - January 29, 2025

On January 29, Gwendolyn Louise Nolen peacefully transitioned to join her ancestors. Gwen, as affectionately known by her family and friends, was born on February 12, 1968, to A. Jay Nolen, Jr. and Martha Pope in Portsmouth, Virginia. Gwen graduated from the School Without Walls in Washington, D.C. She worked as a Salesperson, Cashier, and Bus Driver for Norfolk Public Schools. For the past 30 years, she dedicated her life to teaching children with autism and special needs at Mount Herman Elementary School in Portsmouth, VA with SECEP, the Southeastern Cooperative Education Program. As an Educator, she shared her amazing creativity and demonstrated her sincere love for children, families, and the community.

Gwen is a celebrated cook and a lover of music, movies, and reality TV. A sophisticated lady, she is known for her talent to put together spectacular outfits and interior designs for relative's homes and school events. Her recent passion for fashion was with Shein and Temu. She enjoyed spending quality time with her children and grandchildren, and her grandchildren adored their "GiGi". Gwen will always be remembered for her vivacious spirit, sense of humor, and love of family.

Gwen is predeceased by her father, mother, and maternal and paternal grandparents. To cherish her memory, she leaves her aunt Jane A. Tucker; her uncle Soloman "Val" Lopez, her uncle William Pope (Patricia); son, James “Ryan” Vann, his wife, Katrina and their children Kamiya and Jameer Vann; her daughter, Cierra Vann and her children Zoe Daniels and Ashton Boyer; her son, Quayshawn Nolen; and her daughter, Rasheena Nolen and her children Amarah and Ariaah Saunders. She also leaves siblings Angela D. Bethea and her husband Wesley, Andre Nolen, Crystal Nolen, Jimmy Myrick Jr., Veronica Myrick, Sarah Myrick, Jeremy Myrick, her beloved niece, Jimmell Peele, and her special friend, Terrence S. Battle. In addition, she will forever be loved by a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, her “bestie” and great-niece, Dalis Howard, and extended family and friends.
