“ My deepest condolences to Susie and family in the loss of your beautiful mother. Harriet was one of the kindest and funniest people I knew, always had a smile on her face . Like I often say, she's not gone just changed addresses. I will keep your family uplifted in prayer.

“ Miranda - thank you for sharing Ms. Harriett with us. My mother will always think of her as a Sister and friend. She was always a joy to be around. We will miss her but will hold the memories of times shared together. Continue to shine your light in the lives of others... just like Ms. Harriett!!!

“ Mrs. Austin was always sweet and friendly. The Austin's knew me before I knew me. I will never forget the talks and your never ending kindness. Your family will always be apart of my childhood and most definitely my adulthood. My prayers for your family will be healing, because I know first hand that he is able.
