

Harry Eugene Brown, Jr.

September 15, 1957 - September 9, 2024

Harry E. Brown, Jr., 66, passed away on September 9, 2024. He was born September 15, 1957, in Portsmouth Naval Hospital, Portsmouth, Virginia, was the eldest son of the late Harry E. Sr. and Homezell F. Brown. His family and close friends called him Tilly. This childhood name remained with him throughout his life. As a child, for a short time, he and his family lived at Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. During his childhood, he attended Portsmouth's historic Fourth Baptist Church, with his family. He graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in 1978.

While in high school, he enjoyed participating in track and field sports, martial arts, and playing pickup football games with friends in Cavalier Manor.

After high school, he began a career as a brick mason and joined the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves. As an accomplished brick mason, he worked in residential and commercial sites throughout Tidewater. During his service, he was called to active duty and deployed to serve in Operation Desert Storm (1991).

Harry enjoyed fishing, listening to country music, and watching football. He was a lifelong resident of Portsmouth, residing at the family home in Cavalier Manor for many years. Although quiet and reserved, he had a sense of humor.

Harry is survived by his children, Latrice and Corey (Latoria) Brown, siblings Deborah A. (Nita) and Darryl Brown, two devoted uncles Allen Hoover Boykins and James M. King, and many cousins, and friends.
