“ I have lit a Memorial candle in memory of Hattie Moore. She was a member of Temple Beth El in Richmond, and we attended together a class with Rabbi Creditor called "Basic Judaism". I remember her as a wonderful, soft spoken woman with a warm smile and sweet personality. She would bring her grandson, Christian who usually fell asleep on the carpet during this evening class. I always admired the way she handled this young man. May she rest in perfect peace. My sympathy goes to her family, especially to Christian. Inge Horowitz
