June 2, 1930 - October 20, 2016

Hazel Lucille Locks was born on June 2, 1930 in Norfolk, Virginia to the late James E. and Melissa Davis Locks. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Logan Park, Norfolk, Virginia. She was a member of the Senior Choir, Nurses' Unit, Missionaries Ministry and Pastor's Aid Ministry.

Hazel was a simple, God-fearing woman who devoted her life to Christian activities. She loved her family, senior programs, and friends. Her friends became family.

She received her early education in the Norfolk Public School System, and later worked for Bon Secours DePaul Medical Center as a Dark Room X-ray Technician. She retired with more than 25 years of service.

Upon relocating to Hyattsville, Maryland due to health problems, she became a member of Israel Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Morris L. Shearin, Sr., Pastor. Hazel proudly served in the Missionary Society, Virginia Stem Club and Senior Citizen Day Program.

She leaves to cherish her memory six nephews, Arthur L. Tynes, James Tynes (Sheila), Phillip Locks, Jr., Michael Locks, Lonzer K. beloved friends, Esther Gallup and Racheal Harris.

Hazel touched many hearts with her caring and can-do attitude. Her jovial spirit made it easy for her to go the extra mile to help her fellow man.
