

Helen Doles Credle

December 13, 1923 - June 27, 2014

On June 27, 2014, God dispatched His angel to bring His sweet humble servant ... Helen.

Oh what a glorious experience it was for us to watch her sacred transition from this earth into the presence of her Lord!! There was no struggle, no noise ... Just a gentle sweet easing way in a quiet dainty way. Truly Amazing! Born in Whaleyville, VA, on December 13, 1923 to the late Rogie and Lara Doles. After the death of her mother Lara, her father married Wilma Jenkins. Helen was the seventh of eleven children. She gave her heart to Jesus at an early age. She was married to Joseph N. Credle for sixty- six years with two children. She was employed for over twenty years at Norfolk Naval Shipyard. Deaconess Credle was a member of Mt. Olive Church of Christ Holiness, wherefor over 65 years she performed many services such as organist, choir member, choir president, missionary committees, and several other positions ... But Sunday School was her heart! Truly she loved the Lord! She was known by all for her sweet humble spirit. Always giving of herself. Most will remember her in particular for her delicious home-cooked meals ... Especially her cakes. She enjoyed feeding folks. Both she and her husband played host to many. The Credle's home was the place to be. Truly, she will be missed by all. She was pre-deceased by her husband Joseph N. Credle, daughter Jean Harlow Rogers, parents; Rogie, Lara and Wilma Doles, three brothers; William, Johnnie, and Jessie Doles, six sisters;

Ruth Simpson, Lillian Simms, Olivia Clemmons, Naomi Sellers, Geraldine Parson, and Vernell Blowe. Left to cherish loving memories ... A loving and devoted daughter, Carol C. Earl (William); a brother Lorenzo Doles (Ernestine), twelve grandchildren, twenty-eight great-grandchildren, eleven great-great grandchildren, two aunts; Ruby Price & Frances Jenkins, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many extended friends.

“ I thank God for the blessing of having you as my aunt who always kept her faith in God. You have been a quiet and strong influence on all of your family members with all the beauty and grace of the queen that you are. You teach us with your actions how to love God and His people. Your marriage to Joe should go down in the history books as to how a marriage should be. Your legacy will continue with your beautiful daughter and grandchildren.
