

Helena Hines

November 30, 1947 - January 26, 2013

After a short illness, Helena Hines passed from this life to life eternal on Saturday, January 26, 2013. Helena was born November 30, 1947 in Portsmouth, Virginia to the late Bobby Richardson (1987) and the late Juanita Webb (1997).

She moved to New York at an early age and was educated in the schools of the Bronx in New York, graduating from William H. Taft High School. After high school, Helena attended Herbert H. Lehman College where she received her Bachelor's Degree in Education. Helena enjoyed working with the young and the elderly and spent a lot of time with the senior citizen programs in her neighborhood, assisting senior citizens as much as possible. She worked at the Highbridge Nursery School, the Board of Education and the Head Start program in New York. Helena taught Pre-K and Kindergarten classes and once taught in an all-boys school. Additionally, she was a member of the Bronx Democratic Party and was very active in her community. She was very serious about her work and did not stop until she had achieved the goal for which she set out to reach.

Helena loved to shop and would make purchases to share with people she knew. Family gatherings were always fun times for her.

She will be remembered for her laughter, her fast talking, her love for people and family and her beautiful smile. It will never be forgotten that before her cousin Tiffani passed, Helena would volunteer to watch Tiffani so that Gerald and Marvin could participate in the family gatherings.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sister Joni of Portsmouth, Virginia and a brother Joseph Griffin of New Jersey, a devoted aunt -Gerald (Marvin) Burgin of East Hartford, two uncles –Charles (Audrey) Richardson of Portsmouth, Virginia, and Ronald Riddick of Mattapan, Massachusetts, devoted friends – Rhonda Washington and Marilyn Caesar of New York, many nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
