

Henry Griffin

June 23, 1932 - June 24, 2024

Henry "Hurb" Griffin was born to the late Charlie and Laura Griffin on June 23, 1932, in Sardis AL. He departed this life peacefully in the comfort of his home surrounded by his loved ones on June 24, 2024.

Henry was greatly well known and honored by his Longshoremen family and friends. As he started his career back on April 17, 1971, working on the Local ILA 1248 for over 25 years with hardly ever missing a day or going in late for work until early one July morning he woke up said he felt like he was getting sick so would call in sick.... Went to the ILA local 1248 later that day to put in his notice of retirement.

Henry was fondly known for his CADILLACS of which he is now driving that blue Cadillac around in heaven and let us not forget the Motorcycle which he truly loved and enjoyed with the motorcycle club which he joined going on several road trips until one day the motorcycle decided to RETIRE HIM with saving his life. After which he decided to just continue with the Cadillacs.

In addition to his parents, Henry was preceded in death by his son Frank Griffin, one sister Juanita Arnold and five brothers: Charlie, Lorenza, Adolph, Peter, and Lee Griffin.

Henry Griffin celebrated and cherished his wife Ethel M Griffin with 71 years of marriage. In addition to his wife, he leaves to cherish two daughters Henrietta Mack (Tony) of Capitol Heights, MD and Laura Y Wilkins (Norman) of Chesapeake, VA. One son Lee Griffin of Chesapeake, VA. Seven grandchildren of which two deceased, twelve great grandchildren, and ten great great grandchildren. Six sisters: Mary Lawrence of Marlboro MD, Betty Lawrence (Charlie) of Norfolk, VA, Shirley Mahand (Melvin) and Loretta Towns (Carnell) of Selma AL, Margaret Washington of Winter Havens FL, Quinder Standford of Jacksonville, FL. Three brothers: Clarence Griffin (Geneva) of Roswell, GA. James (J. D.) Griffin and Anthony Boyd of Selma AL. He leaves behind a large host of nieces, nephews, and friends
