“ So sad to hear my friend Herman has passed away. He was a great neighbor and always a joy to talk to when we saw each other. He was very knowledgeable on antiques and a big help to us. He would give up his time to research “finds” for us. He was a great listener and we shared some great laughs together. You will be missed Herman.

“ It is with great sadness both Robert and Edith Edwards express our sympathy to the passing of Herman Bates. We have both known him professionally for over 35 years, as we are vocational rehabilitation counselors, like Herman. Edith worked under Herman's supervisory guidance for 1 year in the latter 1980's and learned so much from him. We both highly admired his skills and gifts he provided to the rehabilitation field. We shall both miss him and our sincere prayers are sent to his family.

“ Herman was such a fine person! Always a gentleman with kind and caring ways, so well spoken, mannerly, with impeccable taste for finer things. He cared about his friends and always asked how I was doing and inquired about my family. We would text back and forth about my “dream diamond” and have the best time shopping at Kings Fork Antiques Show and Old Towne Flea Market. He was loved and will be sadly missed. Rest In Peace, dear friend! Christine W. A.

“ Herman is not just a friend but family to me. He is always there for my kids milestones. He was my baby’s first visitor 28 years ago and is always checking up on me even when we don’t see each other. You will surely be missed my dearest friend - your Mrs Executa

Herman was a good friend in college (VCU in early 1970s). I haven't seen him in person in 45 years, but we reconnected via email several years ago. I'm sorry to hear he has passed. Sending condolences to his family and friends. As you all know, he was a wonderful, caring, helpful person.
