“ Dear Williams Family,

I'm so sorry for your loss. Your father lived a few doors down from my dad. He took care of my dad for many years like he was one of his own. I appreciate the time and effort he gave to my dad over the years.

Your father was a class act. Again, I'm sorry for your loss and I will hold your family in my prayers.

“ What do we do when we face challenges that make us wonder what's ahead? The answers are not always easy, and the direction is not always clear. In these circumstances, OUR HOPE IS IN GOD ALONE. Our lives and our times are in HIS HANDS, and HE assures us that HE is the ROCK we stand upon through the storm. (Roy Lessin) Believing with you--in the wisdom of HIS ways, in the goodness of HIS love, and in the assurance of HIS presence as HE keeps you every step of the way. With deepest sympathy and condolences, from your cousin Jackie and family.##imported-begin##Jacqueline Williams Dennis##imported-end##
