“ To the Dozier Family,

I have fond memories of Mrs. Ida Dozier as a loving mother, Christian lady, and neighbor in the Rose Avenue community. Ma Dozier monitored the family as "Pop" Dozier and Curtis worked on cars & trucks, William "Bra" Dozier played football with the boys, and Chester just hung out. What about the girls? Well, they just looked as Foxy as ever and still do. As time passed, Ma Dozier continued to set the Godly example everywhere she went, in the community or church. She was the ultimate grandmother as I observed her with the little ones that grew up so, so quickly. I loved your mother/grandmother and always got a "BIG" kiss whenever I saw her. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal!

Love to each of you,
