

Imani Adriauna Colter-Porter

January 5, 2003 - December 20, 2024

Imani Adriauna Colter-Porter, was born on January 5, 2003, in Chesapeake, Virginia, and transitioned peacefully on December 20, 2024, in Portsmouth, Virginia.

Imani was the beloved daughter of Sharese Baker and Tyrone Colter Jr. and the second of seven siblings. She was educated in the Portsmouth Public school system and graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in 2021.

Imani met Tyheir Porter and they married in 2023. Together they built a beautiful family and were blessed with two beautiful twin daughters, Mariah and Madison. In 2024, she began her career with Alphabest Education, where she made a positive impact on those around her.

Imani's greatest joy came from spending time with her family and sharing laughter with loved ones. Known for her infectious sense of humor and warm spirit, she had a gift for making others smile.

She found happiness in the soulful melodies of 90s R&B music and cherished moments filled with love and laughter. Her presence brought light to all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother Wanda, and two grandfathers John and Mark.

Imani is survived by her husband Tyheir; her two daughters Mariah and Madison; her mother Sharese; her father Tyrone Jr.; her siblings Taniyah, Tyrone, Brookelynn, Israel, Isis, and Cory; one grandmother Vivian; two grandfathers Emmett and Tyrone Sr.; a special aunt Johnea; as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.

Imani's legacy of love and laughter will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her. May her memory bring comfort to those she leaves behind.
