“ Mrs.Roundtree, Horace, Gloria and other members of the Roundtree family. I was saddened to learn of Mr. Roundtree's passing. While I only knew Mr. Roundtree for only a few short years I always enjoyed the conversations and visits I had with him and Mrs. Roundtree. I spoke with Lewin Bullock to tell him about the obituary and I had hoped to get by the visitation. However, my father George wayne irby passed away Christmas morning. He was also 89 years of age. His obituary was on the page opposite of Mr. Roundtree's obituary. As I am sure you are aware, dealing with funeral arrangements and communicating with family is more than what I expected and I ran out of time. So I share a heavy heart in grieving for our loss but I also know that it is more about celebrating the life of your loving husband and father and my beloved father. It is how they lived their lives that matters and the Lord has called home two special men. My condolences, thoughts and prayers go out to your family. May God bless your family and may you always cherish the memories.
