

Jacqueline Gregory

May 28, 1959 - October 21, 2013

Jacqueline was born in the Deep Creek section of Chesapeake, Virginia to Mary Spence and the late Willie Spence on May 28, 1959. Jackie graduated from Deep Creek High School and later completed training as a CNA. For short periods of time, Jackie worked as a dietitian for Chesapeake Public School and for the Deep Creek Hardees Restaurant. Jackie dedicated her life to family and children who especially needed that special love, meal and attention. Jackie was the one family member called upon when a ride to school or the doctor was needed or a child needed a safe place before and after school. Jackie loved to cook and share a meal with anyone who was around at mealtime. The Lord allowed Jackie and her husband, Timothy to celebrate their 32nd wedding anniversary on October 12th. They were blessed with three birth children; Tina Marie, Yvette (Leroy), Timothy Jr., and one other son, Julian Pittman. In the last ten years Jackie loved and did everything possible to enjoy the "apples of her eyes", granddaughters Laria & Yazmin. Other immediate mourners include two sisters; Brenda Spence, Patricia Longarce [Michael], and one brother, Alexander Smith, all of Chesapeake, Virginia. The Gregory sister and brother-in-laws include: Delosi Gray (Wilbur], Vivian Dixon, Joyce Hood(MorrisL Debra Lewis, Sylvester Gregory, Floyd Gregory, Wayne Gregory, Donald Gregory (Lori); several nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends who mourn

the passing of Jackie.
