

James Bernard Magee

September 14, 1938 - January 13, 2020

On January 13th God called home James B. Magee. James was born in Drewryville, VA on September 14, 1938 to James A. Magee and Carrie B. Giles. James joined the military at the age of 19. He served in both the United States Air Force and the United States Marines. He then later worked at Sherwin Williams paint company as a truck driver until his retirement.

James was a very kind, loving, and selfless person that believed in God. James was a great father and grandfather. He loved his family! James was always helping others in any way that he could. James made everyone around him smile. He was friendly to everyone and always gave people nicknames! When James turned 80 years old he was given a surprise 80th birthday party. James expressed daily how that was the best birthday party he had ever had since being a little boy and how excited he was seeing his family from the country.

James leaves to cherish his memories to his son Eric Harris (Wanda Harris), his daughter Leslie Harris, his five granddaughters Ebony Harris, Jasmine Stith, Nia Thomas, Jayla Harris, and Keeshara Harris. His sister Molly Rogers (Famous Rogers), Sister in law (Cora Giles). Nieces: Latoy Rogers and Ashley Rogers. Nephews: Earl Giles JR and Andre Giles. The Bland and Harris family members: Tawanda Harris and Tralana Harris, All of his family from the country, all of his cousins, his village pointe friends, and a host of other nieces and nephews and family and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents James A. Magee and Carrie B. Giles and his brother Earl Giles
