

James "Buddy" Warren III

May 22, 1959 - November 13, 2018

On November 13, 2018 at 1:24 P.M., God called our beloved James to receive his crown in Glory. He was born May 22, 1959 to James, Jr. and Audrey Mae Warren in Portsmouth, Virginia. He was educated in Suffolk Public School system.

"Lil Buddy," "Buddy," "Slim," or "Unc" as he was affectionately called, was the oldest son of seven children. He was a calm, slow walking, gentle guy, whom everyone loved. He was a big fan of the Washington Redskins. He also enjoyed spending time with family, which included washing everyone's cars, whether you wanted him to or not, playing a good game of spades, and babysitting his nieces and nephews. They all knew that Uncle Buddy always had snacks and would take them for walks, until his health started to fail.

Buddy's Cavalier Manor family could spot him a mile away, because of the slow stride, while carrying his backer full of car washing supplies.

Buddy will definitely be missed by all who loved him, especially his side kick, his brother, Reggie "Pootsie," because if you saw one, the other wasn't far behind. He had given his life to Christ and had started attending church regularly. He loved good gospel music.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James, Jr. and Audrey Warren; paternal grandparents, James, Sr. and Ella Mae Warren; and maternal grandparents, Alexander and Martha Harper.

He is survived by his children: Rayon Pork, Chavez Spivey, and Lavonda Batts (Erin); three grandchildren, Lyric Pork, Erion Batts, and Jayzon Batts; three sisters, Darlene Warren of Roanoke, Virginia, Lisa Warren, and Letitia Wilson both of Pons mouth, Virginia; three brothers, Reginald Warren, Anthony Warren, and Darrell Warren (Charnessa), all of Portsmouth, Virginia; special cousin, Dorene Barco of Chesapeake, Virginia; two special nieces, Tanisha "Tee" Vann and Robyn "Muka" Fulp; special nephew, Jason Vann; several uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
