

James Carver Hargrave

May 7, 1943 - March 19, 2017

" ... I now can rest in peace as I never could before. I answered the gentle knock of the angels at my door. So please don't mourn for me as new wings I now claim. I can take my flight to heaven because the angels came." Grieve not, nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk of me as if I were beside you. I loved all of you.

During the early morning hours of Sunday March 19, 2017, God accepted into His arms the soul of James Carver Hargrave after a brief illness. He was born in Portsmouth, VA to the late Charles V. (Daddy) Hargrave and Hattie W. Hargrave and was predeceased by two sisters Arlene Marie Hargrave and Carolyn Combest and a brother Robert E. Hargrave, Sr.

James graduated from I. C. Norcum High School in 1961 excelling in Mathematics and thereafter, Howard University receiving a B.S. Degree in Accounting. After spending 4 years in the US Army, he was honorably discharged with the rank of Sgt. E-S.

Left to cherish his legacy are his wife Carlinia, three sons Desmond (Lynda) of Baltimore, MD, Marcus of Bridgeport, CT and Marlon of Suffolk, VA; one daughter Kiana of Norfolk, VA, one granddaughter Breana of Hagerstown, MD, three grandsons, Oladele and Biko of Baltimore, MD and Roshad of Bridgeport, CT, one sister Theresa, one brother Charles [Josephine], one aunt, two uncles and a host of nephews, nieces; cousins and other relatives.

“ I'm really going to miss you cousin James. I looked forward to visiting you when I came home or talking with you periodically on the phone. We know Carolina that God doesn't make mistakes. James is just another flower that God decided to pluck from this garden called life. Lastly, Carolina I promise that whenever I come home, I will come visit you. Love you and may God continue to surround you with His angels of comfort.
