

James "Jimmy" Carter

August 26, 1939 - May 7, 2020

James Edward Carter Sr. was born on 8/26/39 in North Carolina. His parents Davis & Betty Cutler-Carter raised him in Sumpter, South Carolina. After completing high school, he married Mary Winningham of St George, South Carolina. The two of them moved to Newark, New Jersey. He attended a trade school to become a machinist. His job required him to build parts for bridges and ships. He often spoke of making parts for the Verrazzano Bridge in New York. He worked as a machinist for Ingersoll Rand in New Jersey starting on 12/26/61. He retired on 6/30/93. After his retirement, James moved to Richmond, Virginia. He was not one to sit around, therefore, he got a part-time job at Wal-Mart and began growing a garden. He also helped his neighbors maintain their yards. Sitting still was not his nature. He leaves to cherish his memory five children. James Carter Jr. (Jewel) of Stafford, Virginia, Cynthia Govan (Marion) of Suffolk, Virginia, Gwendolyn Carter-Delee (Stanley) of St. George, South Carolina, Walter Carter of Charlotte, North Carolina and James Atwoods of Elizabeth, New Jersey. He also leaves behind nine grandchildren. Eboni Carter, Edward Carter (Nthabiseng), Michael Govan, Joshua Govan, Faith Govan, Iyannah Strange, James Atwoods Jr., Tanya McCray (Brian) and Barry Olden as well as four great-grandchildren, Ezekiel Carter, Terrence Carter, Kenako Carter, Kelesego Carter and long-time friend Lisa Cunningham.
