“ To my classmate (Angie), Jimmy, and the entire Barnes Family,

I was saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Barnes. I express my condolences.

I know that God can and will comfort and keep you if you allow him to. Speaking from experience, I know that "life" will never be the same, but it can be filled with pleasant memories that shall never go away. Cherish those moments of reflection and enjoy the peace in knowing that your dad is resting in Eternal Glory and awaiting to be reunited with you as you put your trust in the Lord.

With deepest sympathy and empathy,

Michael Williams (Manor High School Class of '85) and Family

Isn't it just Wonderful to know we have a SAVIOR who made the ultimate sacrifice for us on the cross? Isn't it so wonderful to know we have a home not made by man? To my Son James, Daughter Katina and my baby James this is not the end but the beginning for Believers!
