

James Milton Horton, Jr.

July 2, 1952 - August 5, 2025

James Milton Horton Jr., lovingly known as Jimmy, passed away on August 5, 2025, at the age of 73. He left this world as he lived in it—on his own terms, with music in his soul and love in his heart.

Jimmy is survived by his devoted daughters and sons-in-law, Tanya and Kevin Hobbs, Tiffany and Chris Richmond; his beloved son, Alex Boyd; and his cherished grandchildren, Jona and Lily Hobbs. He also shared many years of co-parenting with Linda Horton and life experiences with Donna Tyndell. Jimmy is also survived by his sisters Linda Mosher, Shirley Branham Pearce and Deborah Heinz.

Jimmy had a deep appreciation for the simple pleasures in life. A self-taught guitar player, he found joy in music and never passed up a chance to play a tune. He never met a stranger—his easygoing nature, warm smile, and good humor left an impression wherever he went. Whether casting a line by the water or cooking up one of his favorite meals, Jimmy's presence brought comfort, laughter, and connection.

His love for life, his stories, and his unwavering presence will be missed more than words can say. His family will hold his memory close, forever inspired by his spirit, resilience, and love.

Tribute Wall

“ I was glad to spend a lot of my time and life with Jimmy. We both shared a love for music, and he taught me many things. We will all miss you.

Kevin Hobbs - August 12, 2025 at 10:35 AM

DJ

Tanya, I am so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. We went to school together. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Doris Jarrell - August 15, 2025 at 08:00 PM