

James M. Saunders

November 20, 1971 - February 28, 2014

On Friday, February 28, 2014, our family circle was broken. The veil of sadness and sorrow has spread over our family and community by the death of our precious angel, James. A beautiful life that came to an end, he died as he lived, everyone's friend.

"The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord, " Job 1:21.

James was born on November 20, 1971 in Portsmouth, Virginia. James received his education from Portsmouth and Suffolk Public Schools. Before he became ill, he was employed with the City of Portsmouth. James had a passion for music. He loved to write lyrics and record music. He recorded several musical CDs.

James was affectionately known as Man, Jeannie Man, Beave, Bizzy, Bizzy Roc, Foo Lay, Blase Blase, My Hood and Big Cookie.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents: Carl and Leah Jackson and Keith Carney; four children - Tarif, Tahira, Tashela and Tymarj'

Saunders; his mate of 20 years and the mother of his children - Shanta Pierce; two sisters - T. Theresa Jones (Wesley) and Karla White; one brother - Maurice Weston; four nieces - Misha, Taylor, Martesha and Melasia; three nephews - Tyquan, Tayveon and Tiki and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
