Sending heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. James Thomas, Remembering the one occasion I met him, he appeared to be such a mild-mannered pleasant Warrior. There was an instant Battlefield connection to him, from that point on. I followed his life through his daughter Shelia. When Shelia came to the salon to get her hair done, I would make portions of a dish for her, and Mr. Thomas, being the honest person she is she on the next she would confess she ate the food before she got home to share with Mr. Thomas.

I will wait until I get to heaven to share With him she ate up his portions.

I wonder who is his favorite. 🤔
