

Janice Reed

August 31, 1951 - September 1, 2019

Janice Mae Woodard was born on August 31, 1951 in Martinez, CA to Benetter T. Woodard (Warner) and Casper K. Woodard. She was younger sister to Betty J. Warner and older sister to Sherry A. Woodard.

In 1967 she moved to Chicago, IL where she married and became mom to Detra R. Woodard. In 1969 mom and daughter returned to California where Jan would spend the next 46 years caring for and nurturing family and friends.

Upon her return to California, Jan joined the work force. She worked as a Bank Teller and Insurance Representative for companies like Wells Fargo, California Casualty and Fireman's Fund. In 1976 she joined Alameda County Social Services. There she worked her way up from Eligibility Tech to Senior Supervisor. She spent 37 years there taking care of clients, family, coworkers and coworkers who would become family. Somewhere along the way she became a "Shoe Diva", known for her sense of style and the height of her heels.

In 2014 she bravely left everything she knew, moved to Virginia Beach, VA to become a part of her grandchildren's every day. She is survived by her sisters, daughter, grandchildren: Jacob and Josie, son in law: Scott, nieces: Stacy, Jamillah, Danielle, & Edwina, nephews: Robert, Daniel & Davion. She was a great-aunt to 10. She was considered family to many more to whom she had no blood relationship.

“ Words can not express how sad we are for your loss. Mrs. Jan's infectious smile and warm hugs lit our hearts with joy every time we were around her and she will be deeply missed. May the comfort and protection of God be with you all for every moment of sadness and sorrow. Find comfort in knowing that she is with God and that she left an indelible mark on everyone she knew. In our hearts and prayers- love Steve, Betty, & Grace
