

Jehu Nathaniel Hill, Jr

September 13, 1955 - October 31, 2014

On Friday October 31, 2014 Jehu N. Hill was called into eternal sleep with family in presence to be with the lord. He was born on September 13, 1955 in San Marcus Texas to the late Jehu SR. & Irene Sawyer Hill. A graduate of Deep Creek High School in 1973, since the age 14, Jehu worked numerous jobs including Parks & Receptions and Plasser American Corporation for over 10 years. Always popular he continued to warm our hearts with his great personality, forever joking, keeping us smiling, a leaving a lasting impression on everyone he met. He enjoyed singing in the choir through his teenage years playing the tambourine, with a love for all music but was especially a number one fan of the group Earth, Wind and Fire. Of course everyone knew his love for the Washington Redskins and his love for his family. Jehu loved the lord, a member of Greater Bethel A.M.E. church whenever he was able to attend, he enjoyed worship with his Pastor Herbert Gibbs and listening to the choir sing. He is survived by his sisters Sherry, Brenda, and Tavana, his brothers Mickey and Stewart, his sons Troy, Jason, and Andre' (deceased), his daughters Shannon and Sherita, nineteen grandchildren, five Aunts, two neices, 'one nephew, one great neice, three great nephews, and host of cousins, extended family, and friends. Jehu will be forever missed, we will always remember the love he shared with us.

“ Words cannot express the profound sorrow I feel for the loss of a dear dear friend. Jehu was, without a doubt, one of the nicest, kindest, jolliest people I have ever known. I met “Junior” back in the 80s ... and we had remained friends ever since. We formed an alliance back then that included Jehu, Linwood, Lurna, and me. We were inseparable and went everywhere together...when you saw one...you saw all of us. We had BIG fun...and now wonderful memories. He was as much a part of our family as my blood brothers. I will miss him immensely. My deepest condolences to the family.

With Sincere Sympathy and Love, ~ Velnita (Bagley) Morris
