“ My friend, you were a sister, mom and aunt to me. You and I had an instant connection. I remember the first time I met you about 20 years ago, you were imitating this man with Karen in the shop and it was so funny I found myself laughing and I didn't even know the man. You had on a 3M respirator and I wondered how you looked under that 3M for like an hour. You finally took it off at break time, I would have never guessed that God had just shown me the face of someone who would play such an important part of my life for decades. My life changed when I got that call 2/8. I'm grateful for that call because it allowed me to spend two more days with you. My Gemini twin, 6/15 will never be the same. I remember that time I forgot you birthday (and you laid me out, lol!) and I swore to you that it would never happen again. There will never be another Jen Jones. We laughed so much together! I'm going to miss you dearly. Love you hun!
