“ A video of a good time with my brother. Back story was he complained about being on the very top floor of the hotel, so they moved him. The kicker was he didn't know they moved him into a converted conference room lol, boy was he mad but it was funny. Good times I will miss.

“ I send my condolences to the family of Jerome Giddens and my niece, Dejean'e Daughtry. I will always remember Jerome as a classmate [Woodrow Wilson class of ' 82] an exceptional athlete and good friend. After high school we both served our country and led productive lives. In closing this is a well deserved rest for one of the military's top recruits.

Rest In Peace

My heart is soo heavy. I did not think I would lose my cuz Jerome so Room, but I will not question the Lord. He never make a mistake. I loved him but GOD loves him the best. Now he's resting in GOD's tender and loving care. GOD has won another precious Angel. I will always cherish the memories close to my heart of the good times we shared when we were growing up as well when we got older. RIP!!! My cuz Jerome. I'm gonna miss you & your great sense of humor. You're gone but never forgotten.
