

Jerry Riddick

August 13, 1941 - February 23, 2012

Jerry Arnold Riddick was born on August 13, 1941 in Norfolk, Virginia to the parents of Muriel Wilkins and Edward Smith. He departed this life on Thursday, February 23, 2012 after a long hard battle with cancer. He fought a good fight of faith with a determination to live. . Jerry was a dedicated worker and supervisor at Sentara Virginia Beach General Hospital where he retired after 17 years. He was well loved on his job. Jerry was a member of Greenbrier Congregation of Jehovah Witnesses.

Jerry leaves to cherish his memory, a loving and dedicated wife, Carole Riddick, of 36 years of marriage whom he loved and adored. He also leaves to cherish his daughters: Terrilyn Shorter of Norfolk, VA, Michelle Patrick of Garner, NC and Taquisa Simmons of Suffolk, VA; his sons, Todd Williams of Hampton, VA and Dakota Riddick of Virginia Beach, VA. Also left to cherish are two sisters, Carolyn Johnson and Valerie Cowell-Stuckley; three brothers, Kevin Williams, Marlon Wilkins and Anthony Wilkins. A loving mother-in-law, Mildred Cox and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends where he will be truly missed by. Jerry was predeceased in death by his son, Barton Moore, his daughter, Toinette Lowe, his sister, Diane Nixon, and brother, Andre Nixon.

Jerry spent his last days enjoying listening to jazz, and time spent with his wife, listening to their favorite song "To make a long story short, I love you, I love you" by Gladys Knight. His days were always filled with "Praising His God Jehovah!"
