My condolences to the Artist, Brown, Davis, Walls, and Bates families on the loss of Joan. I will always remember her wit and humor. My fondest memory will be of her always sitting in her parents front yard. I would run up to her, hug on her, tell her how good she looked and how much loved her! She would say, "If all that's true then let me hold something. And if jingles, I don't want it. It's got to be something I can fold; cause I can do bad by myself. Otherwise, you need to go back in your house!" RIP Joan. I am thankful that you have been a part of my journey.
