“ There are some people we can never forget. Remembering with love, the summers my sister Angie & I spent visiting on Elm Ave. with my sister & brother-in-law James Ballard. They lived just across the street from Joe & his family. Wonderful memories of the late nights talking, just hanging out, or sitting on the porch across the street from Mrs. Flossie's family. Joe, Kevin, & all of your family & friends are forever etched in our hearts & minds. Rest In Peace, L'il Joe. My deepest condolences to all who knew & loved you. You will live forever in our hearts.

*Love,
Vita Miles*

“ Henry,
We love you here on Earth, but GOD loves you the most! You will truly be missed and forever loved. If there is a billiard room in heaven, I know you are saying "rack 'em up" and "whose next". I'll keep an eye on Monica, Kyra and Jordan for you, although, I know you will be looking out for them too, especially when they get on I-85! Until we meet again, my brother! I love you!

“ We have so many memories of lil Joe that it's hard to pick just one...he was one of those people who could bring laughter and smiles into our home whenever he visited. Kevin and I will dearly miss the love so freely given by Joe...listening to the 2 of them relive old football days and high school was a gift for me...the bonds we make throughout life can be some of life's greatest gifts...I was always told that the best friends you have in life will always fit like an old shoe...Lil Joe was one of those guys for Kevin and his loss is felt immensely...we send our heartfelt condolences and prayers for everyone who loved Lil Joe....rest easy my friend...we will meet again someday!

“ To My Extended Family. I'll forever grieve with you during these trying times, just as I still grieve for family members that are no longer here with us. You guys have been an intricate part of my life and I'm forever grateful. Joe - I still remember in 1983 when our football teams (Norcom vs Manor) squared off at Frank D. Lawrence Stadium. We had talked all week before the game and your last statement to me was " Booker - I'll see you on the field". It was kickoff and you were the kick returner. I remember looking in the stands and seeing your mother (Mrs. Flossie) and my mother (Mrs. Joan) sitting side by side to watch us. I was determined to be the first one to hit you. You caught the ball and there I was coming to tackle you. I was focused and had you in sight. Next thing that I knew, you took a side step; I flew by and you were off to the races!!!! LOVE YOU BROTHER, JUST AS YOU'VE ALWAYS LOVED ME....UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN. Mrs. Joan's son George (Booker) Branch...

To the Satterwhite family, Joe had a gift of making you not only smile but laugh and I mean LAUGH OUT LOUD! !A wonderful gift from our Lord Jesus Christ! !This was how I met him at the Portsmouth Naval Hospital. We always enjoy hanging out doing our break. I thank God for the years that He allow me to know Joe 🙏 The last time I talked with him at the hospital, Joe continue to make me smile with such a spirit of knowing whose in control. He wasn't afraid it stated to me "What God says "so my heart rejoice knowing that Joe knew the Lord Jesus Christ! My prayers will continue to be lifted for the family. Strength from God to Tony and all his sisters. God got you ALL! !Love you dearly ❤️
