“ Ruth we were very sorry to hear about the demise of J.D. We have known John from the beginning of your marriage to right now. We were with you when J.D., V was born and both you and John treated him like the special angel he is. Donald was so proud that you considered him worthy to be JD's God father. That is one relationship that will continue.

We will miss John's calls and his arguments about Norfolk State and whatever football team was playing that day. Your job is to take care of yourself. JD still needs you as much as you need him. Cherish each other, love each other, and above all else love the Lord. If His eye is on the sparrow, you should know that He is watching over you and your son.

We love you. Donald and Mabel##imported-begin##Donald and Mabel Larrimore##imported-end##
