“ I love and miss you terribly Daddy, you leaving has left a big void in my world...But no more pain and suffering is what I try to hold on to to console my heart. I'll always be your baby and I'll always be my “old man”. I'm forever grateful to be a Brady, forever grateful God blessed me with you as my father, protector and provider. Grateful you blessed me with wisdom to move along this crazy life. The one constant man in my lifetime I knew I could depend on no matter what..never had to question it. Continue to Rest Peacefully Dad, you are extremely loved and missed by your family..looking forward to the day we all will be together again ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ To My Old Man

Not Every Super Hero Walks Around In A Cape, Some Are In Visible Sight As A Father. Sometimes All You Need Is A Little Clarity To Move Forward. This Healing Journey Is Getting Peaceful. But Everyday Your Still Here Because I Am A Living Part Of You. I Love You Dad 🥰 #ItsAJohnThing

On behalf of the Brady family we would to thank everyone for their support. ❤️

“ I was saddened when I found out that John had passed away. I recently saw his cousin Larry and I asked about him. We grew up together in Lincolnville on London and Glasgow Streets. I remember our days in George Peabody, Riddick Weaver and S H Clarke but we were separated when my family moved to New York in 1959. However, we returned to Portsmouth in 1972 and our friendship was rekindled as I operated Fortson's Economy Market. May the memories of the happy family times sustain you now and in the future.

“ My love and sympathy goes out to the family at this time. "Brady" is surely missed. I will always remember him as a person who loved people; always ready to help whenever he could. You could depend on Brady to have something funny to say. He loved his Queen (Barbara) and Princesses (Johnetta and Rashanda) very much! My fondest memory of Brady is him dancing and doing The Temptations' moves! Please find comfort from God's promises in the Holy Scriptures to get you through this difficult time.
