“ My grandad was the best grandad that anyone could ever have. He was a very strong respectful family man who believed that God was his keeper. He was meek and kind and always greeted me with a smile. I know that he is right there with the Lord his angels and my granny. Be of good cheer Tony, Barbara and Mary you took great care of him while he was here, now God has him wrapped so gently in his arms. Lovingly Cynthia (Teenie)

“ One of my soft-spoken mentors. His life serves as the model for the older and younger men of our family. We can lift up his spirit and honor his life with enduring faith, service to family and community, compassion for our fellow man and persistence in pursuit of excellence. He has left us prepared for these challenges.
