

John W. Potts

May 16, 1961 - June 8, 2020

John W. Potts also known as II "Johni" was born in Tacoma, Washington to Ruby M. Potts and Thomas R. Potts, Sr. on May 16, 1961. He is survived by three sisters Deborah L. Young, Cherryl A. LaPorte, Janet M. Arnold and one brother Charles "Tony" Potts. Johni had a host of nieces and nephews along with an extended family, Kasheba, Ruben, Kamaree, and Novah Jones. Whom he loved dearly. Johni served in the Virginia National Guard in the early 80's and was self-employed in the home repair industry throughout the Hampton Roads area. He was very skilled with his hands and would help anyone that asked or needed his help. If you ever needed a good laugh Johni was the one to give it to you. He enjoyed playing basketball and horseshoes and always wanted to "throw something on the grill" while trying to be the disc jockey at a gathering. Johni will continue to be loved and now missed.
